

AGORASTAKIS Michail

- PhD student – Researcher, Laboratory of Demographic & Social Analyses, Department of Urban and Regional Planning, University of Thessaly.

Taught classes & seminars

- Thematic cartography – Visualization of demographic measures
- Online Databases on demographic statistics
- Spatial Demography
- Data quality and collection
- General Demography

Research Axes

Spatial demography with emphasis on migration and mortality, Data analysis-collection and quality, Geographic Information Systems (GIS),

Studies / Diplomas

- Research training in: Spatial Demography, Demographic Methods of Public Health Research and Research Tools and Presentation Skills, International Max Planck Research School for Demography, Max Planck Institute for Demographic Research (www.demogr.mpg.de), Rostock, Germany, 2009
- Master of Science degree (MSc) in Environmental Management Mediterranean Agronomic Institute of Chania (www.maich.gr), Chania, Greece, 2004
- Diploma of Specialized post-graduate studies in Environmental Management, Mediterranean Agronomic Institute of Chania (www.maich.gr), Chania, Greece, 2003
- Degree (ptychion) in Urban & Regional planning (5-year compulsory studies), University of Thessaly (www.uth.gr), Volos, Greece, 2002

Employment and work experience

- Researcher, Laboratory of Demographic & Social Analyses (www.ldsa.gr), Department of Urban and Regional Planning, University of Thessaly.

Contact details:

Laboratory of Demographic & Social Analyses (www.ldsa.gr), Department of Urban and Regional Planning, University of Thessaly, Pedion Areos, 38334, Volos, Greece.

Tel: (+30) 2421074393

Fax: (+30) 2421074394

Email: magorast@prd.uth.gr

Url: www.ldsa.gr